

Patient transport services

Yorkshire Ambulance Service Patient Transport is currently under extreme pressure, working hard to ensure that all essential journeys are being carried out. At this time we would like to request that patients are asked if they can make own arrangements for transport - even if normally entitled to patient transport.