

Reducing routine diagnostic testing – LTHT

We have been working to reduce our routine and planned diagnostic testing during this difficult period, however our diagnostic teams are still receiving a significant volume of referrals for routine tests. If you have any patients where the risk of not having a test outweighs the risk of them attending LTHT and potentially being exposed to COVID-19, please refer them as an urgent referral during this time.